NAPLES, July 23.

THE Xebeck, and the Two Gallies, which have been cruising off the Isle of Elbe, returned hither the 18th Inst. and brought in a large Bark, belonging to the Malecontents of Corsica, which had taken, in the Neapolitan Seas, a Turkish Ship, and committed Piracies on several Vessels of different Nations. The Captain of this Bark, with his Crew, consisting of 26 Men, are put in Chains, and will probably be treated as Pirates.

Confines of ITALY, Aug 8. We hear that the Court of Turin has refused the Passage for a Body of French Troops, which was intended to have been embarked at Genoa for Corsica. It is remarked, that his Sardinian Majesty is augmenting his Magazines, and has made a numerous Military Promotion, his Troops being now on as complete a Footing, as if he was on the Eve of a War.

WARSAW, Aug. 10. The Insurrections and Disorders which desolate the Kingdom, are still increasing; the People become more and more exasperated; and the greatest Part of the Provinces feel all the most terrible Effects of a Civil War. Crimes are so much the more frequent, as they are committed with Impunity; the Tribunals have no longer any Authority, and we discover every where the Traces of a real Anarchy.

LONDON.

Aug. 23. By a Private Letter from Edinburgh, we learn, that a Ship has arrived at Glasgow, from Boston, in New-England, which brings the News of 16,000 Men being in Arms, to oppose the Landing of any Troops from England; and the same Letter adds, that every Thing was in the utmost Disorder. The Capt. of this Vessel had made Oath, before the Provost, to the Truth of this, and more Particulars are daily expected.

A Correspondent, on whose Veracity we can depend, has sent us the following early and authentic Intelligence, which Adm———n received on Sunday, by an Express, from Boston.

"The Assembly have unanimously refused to submit to any Tax or Imposition, whatever, from Great-Britain, and sent their Resolution to the Governor, in Answer to his Message, requiring Submission to the Acts of Parliament, and to erase out of their Journals, whatever impeached or rejected the Authority of the B——h Legislature. Upon this, the Governor dissolved the Assembly, pursuant to his Instructions: However, before he could effect this, they sent their Resolution to the other Colonies."

They add, that these Circumstances give room to fear that a Storm is gathering, tho', it is said, the Emperor has declared, that he never will give any Occasion for a Rupture.

A Letter from Leghorn, dated July 27, says, "A Report has prevailed here, for some Days, that an English Ship, laden with Cannon and Ammunition, for the Use of the Malecontents of Corsica, hath been visited and stopt by a French Frigate of War. If this is true, it will occasion great Disputes between the Two Courts.

They write from Leghorn, that a French Man of War, of 30 Guns, in attempting to land some Troops at Fornali, in the Gulf of San Fiorenzo, had been beat off, with the Loss of all her Masts, and 70 Men killed and wounded, by a Corsican Battery of 20 Pieces of Cannon; besides Two Transports in her Convoy, sunk near the Harbour's Mouth.

We are told that there is at present more Ship-Timber in the French King's Magazines, than is sufficient to build an Hundred Men of War of the Line.

A Nobleman being asked, the other Day, how it happened that Men of slight Characters, were more frequently distinguished by People in Power, than those of superior Virtue? He answered, "A profligate Man is easily purchased——He that can yield to be a Slave to his Vices, is half qualified for any Sort of Bondage."

We are informed, that a Plan of Accommodation is actually on Foot, respecting North-America, which, without wounding the Dignity of Government, will effectually settle all Differences between Great-Britain and her Colonies.

Extract of a Letter from Corte, July 26.

"On the 21st of this Month, an English Frigate arrived in the Harbour of Isle-Rogue: She came from Portsmouth, and made the Voyage in Twenty Days. As soon as she cast Anchor, the Captain and Two other Officers, landed, and, without stopping a Moment, repaired to General Paoli. It is thought that they are charged with some very important Commission. As soon as the French knew of the Arrival of this Ship, they sent a Xebeck to enquire what Errand she was come upon; but we don't yet know what Answer they received."

Extract of a Letter from Corsica, August 4.

"We have already had several obstinate Brunts with the French. The French Troops, wanting to get Possession of the Heights, attacked a Trench, last Monday, and carried it by Assault; the Corsicans (to the Number of 42) who defended it, refusing Quarter, were all cut to Pieces. During this Action, the French took the Village of Patrimonio, and made there, about Fifty Prisoners: They afterwards directed their March towards Barbaggio, to seize on that District; but were obliged to give over their Attack, by the vigorous Defence of the Garrison. The same Day, the Garrisons of St. Florent, and Bastia, marched out, with some Field-Pieces, to seize on Furiani, and the Heights of Montebello; on which Occasion, there was a bloody Action between those Troops and the Corsicans, of which we have not as yet any particular Detail. Early Yesterday Morning the French Troops made themselves Masters of Barbaggio, but not without considerable Loss, on account of the vigorous Defence of the Corsicans; and afterwards they bent their Course towards Cape-Corse, where there has been a good deal of Blood spilt. In these different Combats many brave Corsicans have lost their Lives; amongst others, the Captains John-Charles Rostino, and Achilles Murati, the same who took Capraia from the Genoese; and M. Barbaggi is taken Prisoner. The French have also lost a Colonel.

"It is said that there has been an Action, near Isle-Rogue, between an English Frigate of War, and a French Xebeck."

Extract of a Letter from Sheerness, August 25.

"This Morning early Expresses were received here, to fit out, with all Expedition, all the Ships, Sloops, and Cutters, now in this Port, to proceed immediately to Deptford, to wait their Lordships further Orders. What may be the Result, occasions great Speculation, as it has a similar Appearance to the Commencement of the last War.

"Yesterday the Honourable Navy-Board visited this Yard, and Ships in ordinary, and, upon their going away, expressed great Satisfaction upon finding the Magazines of Stores, &c. in such good Order.

"The old Dock of this Yard, now under Repair, is in great Forwardness."

BOSTON, October 3.

The following was unanimously agreed upon, as the Result of the Conference and Conſultation of the Committees choſen by a Number of Towns and Diſtricts, viz. Ninety-ſix Towns, and Eight Diſtricts, convened at Boſton the 22d Day of September, 1768.

THE Inhabitants of a Number of Towns in his Majeſty's Province of Maſſachuſetts-Bay, being greatly alarmed at the preſent Aſpect of our Public Affairs, and deeply diſtreſſed in their Minds, upon authentic Advice, that the humble and dutiful Petition of their Repreſentatives, to our moſt gracious Sovereign, for the Redreſs of their Grievances, has not reached the Royal Preſence: At a Time when they are threatened with the poſting of regular Troops among them, while they are in an unuſual Manner deprived of the Benefit of a General Aſſembly, the grand Council of the Province. And being deſirous, to the utmoſt of their Ability, to promote Peace, good Order, and due Submiſſion, among their Fellow-Subjects in the Province, have, in their ſeveral Town-Meetings, legally aſſembled, choſen us to meet together in Convention, in order to conſult and adviſe for that Purpoſe; and alſo for the legal, regular, and prudential Methods of obtaining the Redreſs of our Grievances.

The ſaid Committees having met for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, and after Conference and Conſultation on the Premiſes, thought it adviſeable to prefer a dutiful Petition to his Excellency Governor Bernard, his Majeſty's Repreſentative in this Province, therein ſetting forth, and explaining to his Excellency, the Nature and Deſign of their Meeting, and ſupplicating him to convene a General Aſſembly of the Repreſentative Body of the People: But his Excellency having conſidered their thus Meeting, as unlawful, refuſed to receive the Petition; and ſent them a Meſſage, admoniſhing them to ſeparate themſelves; and alſo afterward he refuſed to receive an Anſwer, which the ſaid Committee thought neceſſary to ſend to his Excellency, in conſequence of his Meſſage and Admonition to them; the Committee therefore conſidering that the peaceable and good Intention of their convening, might poſſibly be miſunderſtood, thought it neceſſary that their Proceedings ſhould be made known to the World, by inſerting the ſame in the Public Prints, that ſo every Suſpicion of any illegal Deſign or Behaviour might be removed.

And the ſaid Committees conſidering themſelves only as ſo many private Fellow-Subjects, convened from divers Towns in this Province, at the Requeſt of their Inhabitants, have made known to each other, the loyal and dutiful Diſpoſition of the ſame; and their Deſire that no irregular Steps ſhould be taken by the People, but that all conſtitutional and prudential Methods ſhould be cloſely attended to, for the Redreſs of their Grievances; and the ſaid Committee, in purſuance of the pacific Intention of their Meeting, have conſidered that the gracious Attention of his moſt ſacred Majeſty to the Cauſe and Grounds of our Complaints, is the only regular Source of Relief from our preſent Diſtreſſes; and that the Houſe of Repreſentatives, in February laſt, did, in their faithful Care and Concern, for the Intereſt and Welfare of this Province, prefer ſuch a Petition to his ſacred Majeſty, as by them was thought beſt adapted to obtain Relief; and at the ſame Time, did write Letters to divers noble Lords, and others, to intreat their Attention to our public Difficulties: Which Petition to his Majeſty, we are in Hopes has before this Time, reached the Royal Preſence, and will, ere long, have the deſired Effect. And as we cannot but ſtill entertain the Hopes that his Excellency, our Governor, will ſoon think fit to call a Houſe of Repreſentatives, who may, if they ſee Occaſion therefore, prefer further Petitions to his Majeſty for our Redreſs, we are therefore humbly of Opinion, and flatter ourſelves, it will not be taken amiſs, if we declare, and which we are aſſured is the Sentiment of the ſeveral Towns to which we belong, that though the preſent Appearance of our Public Affairs is alarming and diſtreſſing, yet that the common Cauſe of obtaining the Redreſs of the heavy Grievances under which we labour, will be beſt ſerved by a firm Adherence to the Principles of the Conſtitution, and a cloſe Attention to the Peace and good Order of Society. And though we are ſatisfied from the Knowledge we have of the Loyalty and Attachment of the Inhabitants of this Province, to the Perſon and Government of our moſt gracious Sovereign, that any Tumults and Diſorders that may have happened, have not ariſen from the leaſt Diſaffection to the Government, as by Law eſtabliſhed, or the Want of Loyalty to our King, on the Britiſh Throne, but merely from a preſſing Anxiety of Mind on the Account of heavy and increaſing Grievances——which Grievances were very clearly ſet forth by the Houſe of Repreſentatives of this Province, in February laſt, in the aforeſaid Petition and Letters, wherein they expreſs their deepeſt Concern, that the Parliament has thought proper to paſs divers Acts, impoſing Taxes on his Majeſty's Subjects in America, with the ſole and expreſs Purpoſe of raiſing a Revenue; and they add, "that if theſe Acts of Parliament ſhould remain in Force, and his Majeſty's Commons in Great-Britain, ſhall continue to exerciſe the Power of granting the Property of their Fellow-Subjects in this Province, his Majeſty's People here, muſt then regret their unhappy Fate, in having only the Name left, of free Subjects."—And, in their Letter to their Agent, they ſay, that "the Coloniſts cannot be conceived to have any Property, if their Money may be granted away by others, without their Conſent, and that this is moſt certainly the preſent Caſe." And, ſpeaking of a Standing-Army, they "appeal to the Tranſactions of the Parliament, to ſhew the Sentiments of the Nation, of the Loyalty of the People of the Province, and juſtly affirm, that their good Diſpoſition renders a Standing-Army needleſs: They further declare, that as Engliſhmen, they have an Averſion to an unneceſſary Standing-Army, which they look upon as dangerous to their civil Liberty. And further, that the Time may come, when an united Body of Penſioners and Soldiers, may ruin the Liberties of America."

Yet conſidering the inviolable Bleſſings, and happy Conſequences of Peace and good Order, and the great Advantages reſulting therefrom, for proſecuting convincing Arguments, and placing Truth in the moſt conſpicuous Point of View; and alſo conſidering the horrible Nature, and dreadful Conſequences of Tumult and Diſorder, we think it our Duty, as Friends to our common Cauſe, as embarked in the ſame Bottom of Provincial Happineſs, to give our free and ſincere Advice, not in an authoritative, but merely a friendly Manner, that we ſhould all of us compoſe our Minds, and avoid any undue Expreſſions of Reſentment, and each one of us prevent, ſo much as in him lies, all Tumults and Diſorders, into which our preſent Calamities may betray us; and to attend, with all due Patience, and a Regard to good Order, the reſult of his Majeſty's Wiſdom and Clemency, from whence we reaſonably expect to receive our much deſired Relief. And it is our firm Reſolution, in our ſeveral Stations, as by our Allegiance required, and by our Loyalty inclined, at all Times, to yield every poſſible Aſſiſtance to the civil Magiſtrate, in the Suppreſſion of Riots and Tumults, and in preſerving the Peace; being humbly of Opinion, that the Poſſe Comitatus, when legally called in Aid of the Civil Power, will ever be ſufficient to reſtrain all Orders of Men, within the Bounds of the Law, and the Limits of the Conſtitution. We, from the Bottom of our Hearts, not only diſclaim and deteſt all Pretences of "uſurping" any of the "Rights of Sovereignty," but alſo of arrogating to ourſelves any the leaſt Authority whatever. We clearly hold, and, whenever lawfully called thereunto, will, at the utmoſt Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, maintain that the "Sovereignty" of his moſt ſacred Majeſty King GEORGE the Third, is already "entire" in all Parts of the widely extended, and ſtill happily ſpreading Britiſh Empire: And may GOD forbid that we ſhould ever once be left to think, or wiſh, much leſs to act any Thing in "oppugnation" of the ſame, "Ignorance of the Law," neither in a Court Temporal, or Spiritual, is a proper "Plea" or "Excuſe." We would appear not as Attornies, Proctors, or Pettyfoggers, but as plain honeſt Men, humbly conſulting Peace and Order, and for the beſt temporal Felicity of our Country and of Poſterity. We would wiſh, as far as is in our Power, ever to promote and cultivate that Harmony and Union between Great-Britain and her Colonies, on which the Happineſs of both ſo much depend. We think ourſelves happy in being connected with the Parent-State, in that Subordination, which forms the happieſt Bond of Union between the Colonies themſelves. We have been taught, that it is the Duty of all Men, inceſſantly to implore the Throne of heavenly Grace, and have but lately heard, there are thoſe who deem it criminal, for aggrieved Fellow-Subjects to join in humble, dutiful, and loyal Supplications to their Monarch. While the People wiſely obſerve the Medium between an abject Submiſſion, and a ſlaviſh Stupidity, under grievous Oppreſſion on the one Hand, and irrational Attempts to obtain Redreſs on the other, and ſteadily perſevere in orderly and conſtitutional Applications, for the recovering the Exerciſe of their juſt Rights and Liberties, they may promiſe themſelves Succeſs. And while they ſtedfaſtly maintain thoſe invaluable Bleſſings, which are derived to them from GOD and Nature, and the happy Conſtitution of the Government under which we live, they may ſafely rely on the Influence and Direction of Him who ruleth according to his Pleaſure, with unerring Wiſdom, and irreſiſtible Influence, in the Hearts of the Children of Men; under whoſe Favour no Grievance can be durable, and without which, no Enjoyment can be truly valuable.

October 13. Remain in Boſton Harbour, his Majeſty's Ships of War, as in our laſt. The 29th Regiment ſtill encamped in the Common; the 14th in the Court-Houſe, and Faneuil-Hall; the Detachment of the 59th, and the Company of the Train of Artillery, likewiſe in Stores, on Griffin's Wharf. But we hear that Capt. Montreſour, Barrack-Maſter-General for America, has taken up ſeveral Dwelling-Houſes, Ware-Houſes, and Sugar-Houſes, to which they will ſoon remove.

Sunday Morning, at 10 o'Clock, in conſequence of Orders given out on Saturday, the Troops quartered here, aſſembled in the Common, without their Arms, where they formed, with their Officers, in their proper Stations.——Mr. Kneeland, Chaplain to the 59th Regiment, read Prayers, and preached a Sermon adapted to the Occaſion.——The Service was attended with great Decorum.

October 17. Laſt Saturday Evening came to Town from New-York, his Excellency General Gage, accompanied by Colonels Robertſon and Maitland, Majors Small and Sheriff, and Captains Kemble, Mathurine and Gamble. The General was received by the Troops under Arms, in the Common, and as he paſſed the Train, they ſaluted him with 17 Guns.

It is now reported that the Head-Quarters for the Army, is to be in this Town.

A Proclamation, publiſhed on Thurſday laſt, ſays, "Lieut. Col. Dalrymple had contracted for the "building a Guard-Houſe near the Fortification in the "Town of Boſton, in order to prevent the Deſertion "of the Troops under his Command, the Frame of "which Building was, by ſome evil-minded Perſons, "on the Night of the 9th Inſtant, cut to Pieces, or "otherwiſe deſtroyed, to the Detriment of his Majeſ-"ty's Service."

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Briſtol, to another in this Town, brought by Captain Tyler.

"Your Convulſions in Boſton, have ſo irritated the Miniſtry, that they have now determined to inforce the Acts of Parliament at all Events, and GOD knows what will be the Conſequence."

From his long Experience, however, he cannot avoid obſerving, that it were much to be wiſhed, Gentlemen who ſend Youth from Abroad, for Education, would intruſt them more immediately to Teachers of Character and Probity, and not as uſual, conſign them to others, leſs intereſted in their Welfare.
